

Fundamental Foodservice Skills

Program Content: The Fundamental Foodservice Skills program offers a sequence of courses designed to provide technical skills proficiency, competency-based applied learning, general employability skills, and occupation-specific hands-on technical skills. The curriculum content includes, but is not limited to, preparation, presentation, and serving of a wide variety of foods. Additionally, topics such as leadership, communication skills, employability skills, and safe/efficient work practices are also covered. The coursework for this program prepares students for entry-level employment positions in the foodservice and hospitality industry, such as a steward, prep cook, pantry cook, fry cook, banquet cook, retail and cafeteria cook & line cook.
